- ▶ Competition split into 2 Conferences playing Home & Away
- ▶ Top four play-offs for each respective competition to determine Conference Champions
- ▶ Conference Champions to play off in Super Cup
- ▶ Super Cup winner to represent Bankstown at FNSW Champions of Champions

9.5 The nominating squads will be divided equally into two conferences. The assignment to each conference each year will be based upon:

a) The Squads will be divided into "Ranked Pots" (in 2016 this will consist of top 4 of 2015 PL1 first grade minor premiership ranking in "pot 1" then next 4 in "pot 2" and so on all the last ranked squad in PL2 first grade. In 2017 onwards the Pots will be determined by the top two ranked squads in each conference's first grade minor premiership in "pot 1", next two ranked teams from each conference in "pot 2" and so on).

b) At the February PL Standing Committee meeting each year, lots will then be drawn from each "pot" at and the squads drawn will be assigned to the two conferences on an alternating basis.

c) If there are any associate licence squads these will be included in the lowest ranked "pot" and can only be placed in the conference that does not include its full licence squad.
